With 24-hour gaming action, endless recreational opportunities, rich community history, quality accommodations, and great dining options, Winnemucca is the place to be.

This event is sanctioned with the Western States Ranch Rodeo. The WSRRA Western States Ranch Rodeo Association started for one reason: to allow the full time and the average day working cowboy, working men and women, to have an opportunity to compete in sanctioned ranch rodeo events. For years, other associations have catered to only the full-time ranch-hand competitor, leaving a large gap for those who work full time in other professions. By including full time ranch cowboys, smaller ranches and part-time cowboy contenders, the WSRRA will considerably enrich the ranch rodeo sport, bringing in fresh talent, showcasing more skills and encouraging seniors, women and youths to participate in a family atmosphere. Only by continuing to expand the opportunities for all ranch rodeo competitors do we ensure that the ranch rodeo heritage will continue for generations to come.

The American cowboy has been a worldwide icon since the early 1800s. Today the heritage, values, and traditions of the working ranch are still alive and well. Ranch cowboys are out there living the lifestyle - calving, branding, gathering and doctoring cattle - keeping our ranching traditions alive.

The WSRRA was formed in 2010 to promote and preserve these traditions through a sanctioned ranch rodeo association. Full time, part time/day working ranch cowboys or anyone else who enjoys competing in ranch rodeo events are welcome!

All qualifying ranch teams and top fifteen individual event contestants will be invited to compete at the annual WSRRA National Finals Rodeo held the first week of November in Winnemucca, Nevada.
